

Resources

Many churches, schools and agencies from many denominations have placed a link to their web site on St. Louis Area Christian Links. A few have links to St. Louis Area Christian Links on their sites.

Get me to your church on time!

After storms and power outages caused a few churches to suddenly cancel worship services, congregations were asked to send their worship schedules through the web site.

Currently, almost 60 churches have their worship schedules published. Send your schedule through the "Resources" page.

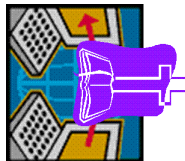

Services offered include:

- Painless fund raising
- Employment opportunities
- Usable items donation
- Volunteer opportunities

See the "Services" page.

ment period, accreditation status, class size, etc., can be posted on the "Parochial Schools" page. Painless fund raising, volunteer opportunities, surplus items, employment opportunities and technical consulting are offered through "Services" pages.

How did this begin?

We began web site publishing in April 2005 as www.stllutheran.net after receiving a one-year, $100.00 grant to publicize Christian community events in the St. Louis, MO area.

How is it financed?

Funding for this all-volunteer web site has been assumed by generous private donors. Please continue to support us with your events and prayers. You may also donate one can or more per day to a food bank or kitchen that serves hungry or homeless people.

How does this work?

When you go to www.stlchristian.net and click the "Calendar" link you can view events sorted by date.

To view categorized events, select a category from the box on the far right.

To add your event click the "Send Event" link and fill out the form. New events are usually posted the same day they are submitted.
